„We only became a member of the Business Leaders Forum in June 2023, but we are already seeing the benefits of our involvement in the company. We like that the platform opens up a wide range of ESG topics, but does not stop at what is required by current legislation.“

„At Swiss Re, we see BLF as a unique platform that connects responsible companies in Slovakia and enables effective exchange of information, joint learning, and moving us forward as a country.“

„It is an honor to be part of the Business Leaders Forum platform for almost 20 years, which for me personally means a holistic approach to responsible entrepreneurship. I can confirm with pleasure that thanks to BLF, companies are aware of the importance of the balance between economic growth and a positive impact on society and the environment.“
